UNPUBLISHED SIDELETTER

As of August 1, 2021

Re: HBO Max

Dear Steve:

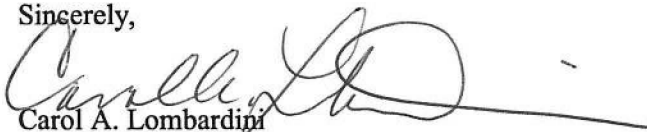

During the 2021 negotiations, the parties discussed a new media over-the-top platform called "HBO Max" ("Max"). Max offers over-the-top delivery of HBO's pay television service and carries all of that service's programming (programming available on HBO's linear service will be referred to as the "Pay Television Service"). Max also offers motion pictures and programs initially exhibited in theatrical and television markets (i.e., library content) as well as original New Media productions made for initial exhibition on Max.

It is understood that when a "feature length primarily animated motion picture" as defined in Article XXVIII.(f)(1) of the Basic Agreement is made available or exhibited on the Pay Television Service and, therefore, made available on Max, the Producer is only obligated to make the Supplemental Market payment required by Article XXVIII.(f) of the Basic Agreement, and no other payment.

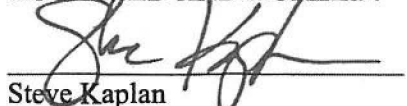

The parties confirm that HBO Max shall be considered to be a service with over twenty million (20,000,000) domestic subscribers during the term of the Agreement.

Please signify your concurrence with the foregoing by executing this letter in the space reserved for your signature and returning same to me.

Sincerely,

Carol A. Lombardini
